RE: Public Records Request April 12, 2013
Public Records Request

Dear Mr. Phillips,

Our office has been assigned to handle public records request for the Louisiana Auctioneers Licensing Board (LALB). The custodian of records, Sandy Edmonds, is the only employee present at LALB office during regular business hours. As such, the examination of records at the LALB's office would cause an unreasonable disruption of the office's normal business operation, a determination, which is in the discretion of the custodian.¹ Members of public who wish to make examination of public records must do so in such a way and at such time as will interfere as little as possible with the work of the official whose records are being inspected.² Therefore, the public records you have requested will be available at our office, at the address listed below, for your inspection. Please contact our office prior to your arrival in order to set up a date and time for you to examine said records.

Additionally, in accordance La. R.S. 44:31, you have the right to inspect the records, copy the records, reproduce the records, or obtain, from the custodian, a reproduction of the records. Thus, if you would like to have the requested records mailed to you, we will provide copies of the records at a cost of 15 cents per page, plus mailing costs. We are producing 4 pages at a cost of 60 cents and mailing of 46 cents. The copies will be mailed to you upon receipt of $1.06.

Please be advised that certain documents are not being produced but have been identified and segregated. These include emails dated January 9, 2013, January 15, 2013, February 13, 2013, February 22, 2013, and March 26, 2013. The attorney work product and attorney-client privilege exception is applicable to these documents under the provisions of La.R.S. 44:4.1 C.

² See State ex rel. Wogan v. Clements, App.1939, 192 So. 126, affirmed 194 La. 812, 195 So. 1.

A portion of this production has already been made available to you in a previous public records request. This document has been available at our office for sometime. You have failed to advise this office if you would still like to view this public record. The document remains available at this office.

Please reply to our office with your choice of either having the records mailed to you or making an appointment to inspect the requested records at our office. If you should have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

BANKSTON & ASSOCIATES, L.L.C.
