Dear Mr. Gilmore,

admin@LALB.org
address: www.LALB.org

It has come to the attention of the Board that two recent advertisements (copy enclosed) do not indicate your Louisiana auctioneer's license number. R.S. 37:3141 requires that advertisements shall indicate the name and license number of the auctioneer and/or auction business. This letter serves as notice that a total fine of $100 is due. A $50 fine has been levied for each violation since there were 2 advertisements which occurred within weeks of each other.

§1503. Fines for Advertising Violations

- A. Violations of Chapter 17 requiring that the licensee place his name and license number in all advertising will result in a money fine to be levied against him. The amount of the fine will be $50 for the first offense and $100 for the second offense. A third or subsequent offense may result in a fine or other disciplinary action within the discretion of the board.

You must make payment of the fine within 15 days of receipt of this letter. Please ~~bring your check or money order payable to the Louisiana Auctioneers Licensing Board and forward that check to the address on this letterhead~~

Please contact the Board office if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Anna E. Dow, General Counsel
