RE: Marvin A. Henderson
DOB: 12/16/36
SSN: [REDACTED]

On July 8, 1988, Mr. Henderson pled guilty to mail fraud in the Middle District of Alabama. On October 28, 1988, he was sentenced to 36 months custody of the Attorney General suspended, placed on three years probation with the special condition he perform 100 hours of community service per year, for a total of 300 hours.

Since Mr. Henderson resided in the Middle District of Louisiana, he was supervised by our office during his three years of probation. He completed his community service work at both the Blood Center of New Orleans and the Denham Springs Library and Livingston Parish Nursing Home.

On October 27, 1991, his period of probation supervision terminated and his case was closed. Mr. Henderson made a satisfactory adjustment while under supervision.
