RE: Fine

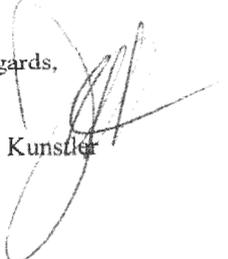

Dear Ms. Wilks:

Per our conversation of this morning I apologize for not having a license number in the newspaper ad. The people at the Advocate told me it was not necessary and were trying to save me money. I have enclosed a check for the fifty dollar fine.

Sorry it took me so long to respond to your letter but I've been travelling.

Regards,

Jak Kunstler

Re: Advertisement of February
17, 1989

Dear Sirs:

The Louisiana Auctioneers Licensing Board has learned that an advertisement for your business is in violation of state law and regulations.

An advertisement listing an auction to be called by you or your company ran in the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate on February 17, 1989. This advertisement listed your license number, but failed to list your name with that number.

As you were informed in our letter of February 19, 1987, such a violation could result in a fine of $50.00, and a second violation could result in a second fine of $100.00. Discipline for further offenses will be decided by the Board.

You are therefore being fined $50.00 for the above violation. Please remit that amount to this office within ten days of receipt of this letter. If you so choose, you have the right to appeal this fine to the board. Please file the appeal by notifying the Board in writing of your decision to do so.
