

1 one we had in a previous auction; did not belong
2 to us; it was on consignment. But they were 3 going to get it sold, flipped, basically,
4 without having to pay for it. And Blake was 5 dangling that carrot in front of dad's nose,
6 we're going to get this deal done, we're going 7 to get this deal done. And so in his mind, they 8 were going to put the money back or he was going
9 to, you know, make the extra money to put back
10 to the company.

11 You know, he -- Blake was well
12 aware that dad liked to get money to give to 13 young women. And we had had that discussion
14 many times, specifically sitting in my office,
15 with Blake that any money that was paid to dad,
16 loaned to dad or anything that J.A.H. was not 17 responsible for it.
