RE: Robert Burns v. Louisiana Auctioneer's Licensing Board, et.al.
Docket # 616916, 19th Judicial District Court

Dear Judge Fields:

A hearing was held in open court entailing the above-captioned case on March 25, 2013 for Motions for Summary Judgment filed by each party. At the conclusion of oral arguments, both motions were denied, and the Court indicated that it would draft a Judgment reflecting same.

Having now argued pro-se before most 19th JDC judges (Judge Morvant, Judge Caldwell, Judge Hernandez, and you), I now have a genuine appreciation for the sheer volume of matters and paperwork each Judge and his/her staff have to sort through and make rulings upon every Monday.

To that end and since it has been over 120 days since the hearing, I thought I would draft a proposed Judgment for the March 25, 2013 hearing and have enclosed same. I am also enclosing a letter sent to Counsel for Defendants, Larry S. Bankston, which included the proposed Judgment and was mailed to him on July 24, 2013. Mr. Bankston has voiced no objection to the proposed Judgment. For your convenience, below is a copy and paste of the minute entry from the Clerk of Court's Suit Records department:

25-Mar-2013 03:10 PM		Hearing Held
Entry:	This matter came on for hearing on a Motion for Summary Judgment filed on behalf of plaintiff, Robert Edwin Burns, plaintiff in proper person; and Motion for Summary Judgment filed on behalf of the defendants, Louisiana Auctioneer's Licensing Board, Charles McMillin, James M. Sims, Darlene Jacobs-Levy, Gregory Bordelon and Charles Brister. Present in court was Robert Burns, plaintiff in proper person; and Larry Bankston, counsel for the defendant, LA Auctioneers Licensing Board. The matter was argued by counsel and plaintiff and submitted to the Court. Whereupon, the Court denied both Motions for Summary Judgment. Judgment to be signed accordingly. Kim Ford; 03/25/13

As a courtesy to the Court, I submit the enclosed proposed Judgment in the event it may wish to avail itself of it to formalize the Court's ruling of March 25, 2013.

BATON ROUGE LA 70809-2411

Dear Mr. Bankston:

Since it has now been 120 days since the March 25, 2013 hearing entailing Motions for Summary Judgment filed by both sides in the matter of Robert Burns v. LALB etal. (Docket # 616916) and I know the Court gets bogged down with all of the matters regularly appearing weekly, I figured as a courtesy to Judge Fields' office that I would draft the enclosed Proposed Judgment regarding Judge Fields' denial of each of our respective Motions for Summary Judgment.

I know Judge Fields relayed that the Court would draft the Judgment; however, as you are obviously aware, each Judge has a massive caseload and, to the extent the enclosed Proposed Judgment may be able to assist a small bit in helping to alleviate a small fraction of that workload, I'm sure it may be appreciated as a convenience.

In accordance with Local Rule 9.5, I am providing you with a copy of the Proposed Judgment and will refrain from forwarding it on to Judge Fields until at least five (5) working days have passed. I can hardly envision you having any objection to the Proposed Judgment since it merely reflects what transpired and what is already recorded in the Clerk of Court's Minute Entry for that day; however, if you may by chance have such an objection, please contact me so that we may resolve same.

I will provide you with a copy of the letter I send to Judge Fields accompanying the Proposed Judgment.

Sincerely,
