Dear Mr. Shackelford,

Your application for Louisiana Auctioneer is on the Board meeting agenda for Monday, May 20th.

As you are aware, there was an allegation that you auctioned without a license in Louisiana prior to your application being submitted for approval. You may be asked questions about this allegation in the meeting. Section 3113 E provides that the Board can conduct an interview with the applicant to supply information necessary for the license to be issued. The Board may determine that this matter should be held in executive session. If so, you have a right to have it held in open meeting, pursuant to Section 42:17 of Louisiana's Revised Statutes.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
